pbbr advised Sogenial Immobilier on the acquisition of the Vida Ovar Shopping Center.

This commercial space, previously owned by White Sand Capital Portugal, has 67 stores and restaurants spread over two floors, with a gross area of over 20,000 m², and offers free parking with 238 covered spaces and 1,080 outdoor spaces.

This acquisition represents a strategic step in strengthening Sogenial Immobilier's position in the regional commercial real estate sector, consolidating its presence in assets with a strong retail component and potential for appreciation.

The multidisciplinary pbbr team involved in this transaction was led by Pedro Pinto, with the support of Isabel Brazão de Castro and Catarina Ruivo Rosa from the Real Estate area, Tânia Ferreira Osório, Joana Magalhães Silva, Joana Sousa Martins, and André Bernardo Alves from the Urban Planning area, André Marcos from Corporate and M&A, and Mário Silva Costa from the Tax area.
