

Tiago Coder Meira, head of litigation and arbitration at Pbbr

Julia Gil

Pbbr announces the appointment of Tiago Coder Meira, formerly of SRS Legal, as partner to head the litigation and arbitration department, as part of its growth and consolidation strategy.

According to Pedro Pinto, partner at Pbbr, “the arrival of Tiago Coder Meira as a partner represents a very important step in the consolidation of our strategy of sustained growth and quality, for which we are recognised by our clients. This appointment reflects the firm’s commitment to an essential practice area with prospects for growth in demand, in which we want to invest and grow. Tiago’s recognition and experience in the market give us confidence that litigation and arbitration will consolidate their position as relevant practice areas for the firm, complementing those that are already a benchmark for Pbbr and fostering strong synergies with the other departments at pbbr.”

With over 15 years of consolidated experience in civil and M&A litigation, Coder Meira joins us from SRS Legal, where he has been a partner since 2024, advising clients in the real estate, distribution, banking and financial services sectors. His practice has focused on civil, M&A and corporate litigation, including, more recently, representation in class actions.
